May 2nd /84.

Gentlemen.

I ask the honor of bringing to your notice, one of the paintings, of "Cecil Pomeroy" (at present residing in San Francisco). An Artist, who has devoted her life to her work. She is an American, by birth and parentage.

Her originality of design, devotion to her work, and careful execution, Merits the kind consideration of lovers of Art.

Mrs. Pomeroy's painting, a photograph of which is placed in your hands, is offered for sale, And I most earnestly beg that you give it your Attention. I send with the photo. one of her studies, which is in my possession, although it was not painted for exhibition, I hope it will assist you, in forming an estimation of her work.

I am deeply interested, and not only am I anxious to see the works of our best home Artists, take their place in our National Gallery, but also anxious that a lady, who by dint of hard work, and very little, if any teaching, has reached her present standard, should receive the commendation and encouragement of your most honorable Committee.

If you look upon the purchase favorably. I will immediately send for the painting, and place it in your hands, subject to your fair criticism or approval.

Anxiously awaiting your decision, I am gentlemen.
Yours most Respectfully,
Mrs. J. E. Engle.

To Mr. May. Pres. of the Conn. Acad. of Sci.
Dr. Sir.

The Photos you sent.
Sacred. Bull Apis. & Vested figures. recd.
They were both too light. The Bridgeman in particular. which I return.
besides it is not what I desire in regard to merit.

So that you will know better what I wish. I will state that the shady side of the figures are not dark enough and are too plainly visible as regards brush touches. which cause it to look dauby where it ought not to. I have seen photos.
of the same subject from the Gallery that are what I desire. Now if you will try again and give me deep shadows and strong lights without great loss of detail it will please me greatly. if you are not sure as to what to do I would wish you to get an Artist whom you may chance to know or stumble on to oblige me. Yours kindly Chas. Russell Loomis Artist.
